

"Berry's for Clothes"

AN OBJECT OF INTEREST NOW IS OUR OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT

This store is not controlled by any manufacturer. Berry clothes are made in our New York workrooms under the supervision of our own eagle eye!

That's why we gladly guarantee every suit or overcoat we sell, and it's why more value is to be had at the price!

Some manufacturers spend fortunes every year in magazine advertising, and every man who buys one of their garments is paying something on the advertising expense.

Here are Overcoats from $12.50 to $50 that represent the extreme of value at their price.

YOU try a Berry Overcoat this season.

Coats for girls, boys and young women, too.

C. H. Dwyer

He Will Wed Mrs. Grover Cleveland

PROFESSOR THOMAS J. PRESTON.

Turkish army at Dedaghat is to be in the western flank of the Bulgarians, while the main Turkish force, occupying the line between Tchorlu and Serai is expected to deliver the decisive blow against the enemy.

The defenses at Tchorlu have been repaired and strengthened and during the past few days many guns have been mounted there. But if the Turks are beaten at Tchorlu and Tchereski an effective resistance along the last line of forts is improbable.

Christians Butchered.
Vienna, November 3.—The correspondent of the Reichpost from the Bulgarian army says the retreating Turks committed horrible savagery. All the villages were burned and Christians, butchered. Many women were mutilated.

King Peter Enters Uskup.
Belgrade, November 3.—King Peter made his entry into Uskup Saturday, and was welcomed by his sons and the officials. The Crown Prince greeted his father as the first Serbian ruler to enter the old Serbian town in 600 years.

POLITICAL CAMPS HAVE DAY OF QUIET

(Continued From First Page.)

begins in 1915 will be inaugurated at a meeting of the Progressive National Committee in Chicago, December 15. Without congressional and presidential election, Senator Dixon will issue tomorrow a formal call for the December meeting of the Progressive party organization.

"In addition to the members of the national committee," said Senator Dixon, "I am also inviting to partici-

THE WEATHER.

Forecast: Virginia—Fair Monday and Tuesday; rising temperature.
North Carolina—Fair Monday and Tuesday; slowly rising temperature.

Special Local Data for Yesterday.

12 noon temperature.....	47
3 P. M. temperature.....	53
Maximum temperature up to 5 P. M.....	50
Minimum temperature.....	38
5 P. M. temperature.....	50
Normal temperature.....	53
Deficiency in temperature.....	14
Excess in temperature since March 1.....	17
Accum. deficiency in temperature since January 1.....	387
Deficiency in rainfall since March 1.....	4.98
Accum. deficiency in rainfall since January 1.....	8.11

Local Observations 8 P. M. Yesterday.

Temperature.....73

Humidity.....73

Weather.....Clear

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.

Place.	Ther.	H.T.	LT.	Weather
Richmond	58	50	32	Clear
Asheville	42	32	26	Clear
Atlanta	48	32	26	Clear
Atlantic City	38	46	30	Clear
Boston	38	46	30	Clear
Buffalo	32	44	28	Cloudy
Calgary	42	38	28	Clear
Charleston	52	44	34	Clear
Chicago	44	48	32	Clear
San Francisco	46	50	42	Cloudy
Duluth	46	48	26	Cloudy
Galveston	46	48	26	Cloudy
Hatteras	48	52	44	Clear
Havre	48	52	44	Clear
Jacksonville	52	54	44	Cloudy
Kansas City	52	54	44	Cloudy
Los Angeles	52	54	44	Clear
New Orleans	52	54	44	Clear
New York	38	44	34	Clear
Norfolk	44	48	34	Clear
Oklahoma	44	48	34	Clear
Pittsburgh	44	48	34	Clear
Raleigh	44	48	34	Clear
St. Louis	44	48	34	Clear
St. Paul	44	48	34	Clear
Savannah	44	48	34	Clear
Spokane	44	48	34	Clear
Tampa	44	48	34	Clear
Wash. D. C.	44	48	34	Clear
Winnipeg	44	48	34	Clear
Wytheville	44	48	34	Clear

REMARKS: November 4, 1912.

Wind: S.W. 10-15; S.W. 10-15.

Sea: S.W. 10-15; S.W. 10-15.

MAJORITY IN FAVOR OF GOVERNOR HADLEY

New York, November 3.—Eighteen of twenty-four members of the Republican National Committee who have nominated Chairman Hillier of their choice of a vice-presidential candidate to succeed the late James B. Sherman favor Governor Hadley, of Missouri.

In a statement here to-night Chairman Hillier declared that no selection would be made by the national committee until November 12, but he made public the desires of the twenty-four committeemen who have openly stated their choice. Of these, aside from the majority for Governor Hadley, two favored John W. Wainwright, of Philadelphia; one Secretary of War Winson; one Congressman S. W. McCall, of Massachusetts; one Justice Hughes; and one Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland.

The suggestion that members of the Republican National Committee should authorize the executive committee or the chairman of the committee to nominate for Vice-President to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Sherman is not feasible and therefore has not received favorable consideration," said Mr. Hillier. "It has already been made clear it would have been a physical impossibility for members of the committee to attend a meeting prior to election day. Proxies by wire would not have been legal and action based on such proxies would have been an unwarrantable innovation and would have established a dangerous precedent."

A majority of the members of the committee have, however, publicly expressed their choice for a candidate. Mr. Hillier, of Maine, favored immediate action, but has not yet indicated his choice of a candidate. While the member of the committee from Idaho has not given voice to his views, the Republican State Committee of Idaho has recommended the selection of Governor Hadley, of Missouri.

Among the committeemen who have indicated their choice are Martin, of Virginia, for Governor Goldsborough; Jackson, of Maryland, for Justice Hughes.

issued from the Progressive headquarters place Roosevelt's majority at not less than 40,000.

The attitude of the newly enfranchised women voters is regarded as problematical, no election so far held having given an indication of their general political tendency.

Getting Out the Vote.
Indianapolis, Ind., November 3.—With the active speaking campaign closed and the national and State elections one day away, word was sent from each of the headquarters to-day to the workers in every county that the last few hours must be used in arranging to get out the full voting strength.

Indiana voters this year were required to register for the first time, and many complaints have been received at party headquarters concerning fraudulent registration. Two persons have been arrested at Terre Haute, charged with having prevented one person from registering. In that city several persons are under indictment, charged with padding registration lists.

Edward M. Lee, Progressive chairman, says he has heard of numerous schemes to aid or prevent voters, and the organization has employed a number of detectives to watch polling places in this and other places.

Big Vote Predicted.
Portland, Me., November 3.—A greater vote than has ever been cast in a presidential election will be polled in Maine next Tuesday, in the opinion of campaign managers, though the total is not expected to equal that at the September State election. Halbert F. Gardner, Progressive national committee member to-day, said:

"I predict that the Roosevelt electors will have a plurality of 10,000 votes."

"Governor Wilson will carry the State by at least 5,000 votes," was the prediction of Chairman Wilson, of the State Democratic ticket.

Frederick Hale, Republican national committee member, said:

"I am confident that the Taft vote will be much larger than the general predictions have led people to expect."

No Chance for Taft.
St. Paul, Minn., November 3.—The campaign in Minnesota, to all intents and purposes, closed last night with the winding up of the trip of the Taft special in Minnesota.

The result in Minnesota, according to the eleventh hour predictions, lies between Governor Wilson and Colonel Roosevelt, although it is believed by astute politicians that President Taft made substantial gains in the last three days.

South Will Remain "Solid."
Atlanta, Ga., November 3.—Reports from various campaign leaders throughout the Southern States to-day indicate that the so-called "Solid South" will cast its customary Democratic majority in the presidential election on Tuesday. Final appeals are being made to the Democrats, Progressives and Republicans, and a record vote everywhere is predicted.

The only feature of an otherwise apathetic campaign has been the increased activity of the Progressive and Socialist parties. In Tennessee, Georgia, South Carolina and Florida the Socialists have been unusually active, and claims are made that they will more than double the Socialist vote cast in the last presidential election. The Progressive activity has been noted throughout the South, and leaders of that party while not making any claims of carrying any State, declared they will make a respectable showing.

Bishops Go Home to Vote.
Defiance, Ohio, November 3.—The semi-annual conference of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church adjourned Saturday at Toledo in the midst of important deliberations that the bishops might return home to vote in the national election. It was declared to-night by Luther B. Wilson, secretary of the board of bishops.

Secretary Wilson said it was thought by the board of bishops that the church leaders might in this way emphasize the solemn duty devolving upon the entire body of intelligence and conscientious participation in the affairs of state.

Children Given Oranges.
Settlement Expected to End Fight Over Williams' Estate.

Baltimore, November 3.—A settlement of $400,000 on Gaston de Calard de Bern and Beatrice de Bern, children of Prince Henri de Bern, of France, and grandchildren of the late Ross Winans, Baltimore millionaire, went on record in the Orphans Court here Saturday.

The settlement will come partly out of the $500,000 left under the Winans will to Miss Dorothy Bateman, daughter of a Newport, R. L. Inkeeper, and from other resources of the estate. Miss Bateman, it is understood, consented to receive a smaller share in the estate, and because of this and other settlements there is anticipated no litigation of the Winans will.

Storm Is Promised by Weather Bureau.
Washington, November 3.—A storm now centered west of the Rocky Mountains is coming eastward, bringing local rains and snows for the Northern and some for the Southern States. The storm, according to the Weather Bureau's weekly bulletin, will proceed over the Great Central Valley Tuesday and the Eastern States about Wednesday.

"This disturbance," says the bulletin, "will be preceded by a general rise in temperature, the first part of the week in the Eastern and Southern States, and be followed by a change to colder weather, which will continue in the Northern States on Wednesday."

"Another storm, attended by snow and precipitation, will reach the North Pacific States Wednesday or Thursday, prevail over the Middle West about Friday and Saturday, and the Eastern States about the close of the week. A change to decidedly colder weather will follow."

Good Roofing and "Pearl" Roofing the Same.

Gordon Metal Co.
RICHMOND, VA.

We'll be play any of the Victor Records

Made by The World Famous Soprano

Mme. Marcella Sembrich

who will appear Monday evening November 11th. at the

CITY AUDITORIUM

Semiramide—Bel raggio lusinghier (Bright Glimp of Hope). Rossini.
Sommambula—Ah non giungo (Recall Not One Earthly Sorrow). Bellini.
Traviata—Ah! fors e' lui (He My Heart Forsaken). Giuseppe Verdi.
Vespri Siciliani—Glupp, Merce dilette amiche (Dear Friends). Verdi.
Voci di primavera—Valse (Voice of Spring). Johann Strauss.

Other Records in to-morrow's ad. Come every day and hear the new ones.

The Carley Company

Successors: Cable Piano Co. Mad. 2586. 213 E Broad courage to go through, and they will go to the wire with him.

Nebraska, for the third time in his whole history in a presidential fight, will send her electors to Washington to be counted for the Democratic nominees. Yours truly, (Signed) JAMES H. DAHLMAN, Mayor of Omaha.

Optimism. EVERYWHERE

Headquarters Receiving Cheering Telegrams From Leaders Throughout Country.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, November 3.—From all parts of the country telegrams are coming into Democratic national headquarters to-night predicting an overwhelming victory at the polls on Tuesday next for Wilson and Marshall. These messages are from State chairmen, Mayors of big cities and noted educators.

"Wilson Rally Day," celebrated throughout the United States Saturday, was a tremendous success, hundreds of thousands of voters assembled in the cities, villages and country schoolhouses of every State to hear the message from the Democratic standard-bearer read. To-morrow, the 1912 campaign will close with mass meetings, red fire and streams of oratory. In the Western, Middle Western, Eastern and New England States the final manifestation of joy over the approaching victory promises to be especially enthusiastic.

The great parade which was scheduled for yesterday in New York, but was called off by order of Governor Wilson, of New York, for the memory of the late Vice-President Sherman, has been declared on again, and on Monday night more than 60,000 Democrats will parade up Fifth Avenue.

Following are some of the messages received to-night at Democratic headquarters:

City of Boston.
November 3.—"Wilson and Marshall will sweep the country, and I know that they will carry Massachusetts. In this Commonwealth the Democratic State ticket will be elected from top to bottom, and there will be a Democratic Legislature and a Democratic Governor. I am a Democrat, and I will vote for a Democratic successor to United States Senator Crane. Why should the voters elect Wilson? Because he represents genuine progressiveness as well as genuine Democracy, with and without the capital B. He is the one progressive who has been elected. Thousands of Republicans will vote for him, and no large number of Democrats will vote against him. Sincerely yours, (Signed) JOHN F. FITZGERALD, Mayor of Boston.

St. Paul, Minn., November 3, 1912.
Reports from all parts of Minnesota indicate Wilson's plurality over Roosevelt of 25,000 to 25,000.
(Signed) D. D. DALEY, State Chairman.

Lincoln, Neb., November 3, 1912.
Wilson will carry Nebraska by 25,000 plurality, and entire Democratic State ticket will be elected.
(Signed) T. S. ALLEN, Chairman.

Baltimore, Md., November 3, 1912.
I am thoroughly persuaded that if over this country should cease to exist as a nation its downfall will not be brought about by foreign troops, but by the leadership, indifference and political apathy of its degenerate sons."

Uttering each word slowly and pausing with his right hand upraised motionless above his head to hold the audience in breath, Cardinal Gibbons, in a sermon to a crowded congregation in the cathedral with the above sentence. His theme was "Will the American Republic Endure?" and then to the audience who had heard his preach many times before on vital subjects were convinced that this will rank with his best and most memorable sermons.

Ridiculing the stock argument of the partisan workers who predict the downfall of the republic if their candidate and their party are victorious, the cardinal concentrated his argument upon what he described as the two gravest crises of his lifetime in the history of the nation—the Civil War and the controversy over the election of Hayes as President.

These who expected to hear from the cardinal some word that might be construed as a hint as to his own preference in the election were disappointed.

As a supplement to his address, as he was about to leave the pulpit, he said: "For so it may be decided to you or even to some of the electors, but I am not going to take the chance of the people to take an interest in the election of the American people to that they may choose a man whose administration shall reflect to the glory of the nation."

Omaha, Neb., November 3, 1912.
Governor Wilson will be elected by an overwhelming majority. I and the Democratic party failed, and thousands of Republicans are out openly for him.

The clear statements on the issue, as to how he proposes to bring about the reform so vital to the welfare of the American people, appeal to the rank and file. They believe he has

St. Paul, Minn., November 3, 1912.
Reports from all parts of Minnesota indicate Wilson's plurality over Roosevelt of 25,000 to 25,000.
(Signed) D. D. DALEY, State Chairman.

Lincoln, Neb., November 3, 1912.
Wilson will carry Nebraska by 25,000 plurality, and entire Democratic State ticket will be elected.
(Signed) T. S. ALLEN, Chairman.

Baltimore, Md., November 3, 1912.
I am thoroughly persuaded that if over this country should cease to exist as a nation its downfall will not be brought about by foreign troops, but by the leadership, indifference and political apathy of its degenerate sons."

Uttering each word slowly and pausing with his right hand upraised motionless above his head to hold the audience in breath, Cardinal Gibbons, in a sermon to a crowded congregation in the cathedral with the above sentence. His theme was "Will the American Republic Endure?" and then to the audience who had heard his preach many times before on vital subjects were convinced that this will rank with his best and most memorable sermons.

Ridiculing the stock argument of the partisan workers who predict the downfall of the republic if their candidate and their party are victorious, the cardinal concentrated his argument upon what he described as the two gravest crises of his lifetime in the history of the nation—the Civil War and the controversy over the election of Hayes as President.

These who expected to hear from the cardinal some word that might be construed as a hint as to his own preference in the election were disappointed.

As a supplement to his address, as he was about to leave the pulpit, he said: "For so it may be decided to you or even to some of the electors, but I am not going to take the chance of the people to take an interest in the election of the American people to that they may choose a man whose administration shall reflect to the glory of the nation."

Omaha, Neb., November 3, 1912.
Governor Wilson will be elected by an overwhelming majority. I and the Democratic party failed, and thousands of Republicans are out openly for him.

The clear statements on the issue, as to how he proposes to bring about the reform so vital to the welfare of the American people, appeal to the rank and file. They believe he has which the government issued. The fighting Saturday south of Lala was of the most murderous character. The Turks offered splendid resistance, but were overwhelmed by the Bulgarian artillery fire. This was a surprise and compelled the Turks to withdraw to the last line at Tchorlu.

There the Turkish troops intend to make a supreme effort to save the capital. Reports place the Turkish losses at more than 30,000 killed or wounded.

A communication was given to the press to-night which is not to be made known to the public until to-morrow. It is bound to cause universal amazement.

Recent announcements had led the people here to believe that the tide was turning in favor of the Turkish army. The present announcement is intended to break the bad news gently.

The Porte's appeal to the powers for mediation is not known to the public, but it is believed that this action will be approved by the most enlightened classes.

Austria Blocks Way.
Paris, November 3.—Austrian suspicion will block the way to an accord of the powers on the proposal of France, Russia and Great Britain for a declaration of "territorial indisputableness." The French ambassador at Vienna has given the Austrian Foreign Minister, Count von Berchtold, definite assurances that the three powers have no intention of asking Austria to deny herself the right to protect fully her economic interests, and that the only desire is to be able to indicate to the belligerents that the offer of mediation is the great powers determined to make no demands of territorial compensation.

Germany also remains silent. Her ultimate decision doubtless will conform to that of Austria. Meanwhile, the belligerents have given no sign that they wish interference by the powers. The Balkan league, according to information available in Paris, has already agreed on a program, and when the time arrives means to discontinue terms to Turkey.

The owners of the Triple Entente already have sent a note to Bulgaria, Greece and Serbia, pointing out the danger to Christians and the serious consequences to the commerce of Europe generally should they occupy Constantinople and Saloniki, and earnestly exhorting the Balkan states to arrest the advance of their troops over distance from these cities.

Greeks Capture Preveza.
Athens, November 3.—The Greeks have captured Preveza, a fortified town on Epirus, on the north side of the entrance to the Gulf of Arta.

Greek troops entered the town at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Greek blockading squadron sent two gunboats cleared for action, into the harbor, but no resistance was offered.

The Turks and Bashis Babouka took flight, but 450 of them were captured.

A Turkish torpedo boat in the Gulf of Arta was shelled and burned.

The Mayor of St. Petersburg has sent greetings on behalf of that city to the Mayor of Athens. He announces that Russian capital has voted $50,000 to aid the Greeks.

The crown prince is reported to have captured Yenidish, near Saloniki, after an engagement lasting over Friday and Saturday. The Greek army is still pushing forward, the Turks retreating in disorder.

Amex Captured Districts.
Belgrade, November 3.—King Peter is expected to return to the capital soon. Newspapers express the opinion that the Kings of the four allied states will meet at the conclusion of the war, either at Athens or Sofia. It is understood that the coming session of the national assembly will vote on annexing the captured districts of Novi-Bazar, Kosovo, Kumanova, Uskup, Vardar, Pristina and Dibra. It is announced that the Turks are assembling before Dibra. Three of the beaten Turkish commanders are there with Zekki Pasha. Their army has been totally disorganized, and they have lost most to their arms. They are wholly dependent on the Arnauts, who, however, are disheartened and have little faith.

Fighting Still in Progress.
Sofia, November 3.—Fighting is proceeding all along the line from Tchorlu to Seria, where the remnant of the defeated Turkish army is making a stand.

Reports continue to circulate that Adrianople has fallen, but there is no confirmation. This Turkish stronghold has been subjected to extremely severe bombardment, and the latest official advice is that Bulgarian shells still are being dropped into the fortress.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.

Constantinople in Panic.
Constantinople, Saturday, November 3.—(Unconfirmed)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle. Foreigners and natives alike are suffering from the tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege.